The Journal of Spanish Cultural Studies is an international peer-reviewed journal that interrogates established notions of Spanish culture and Hispanism by publishing innovative theoretical and critical work of the highest quality. Work across disciplinary and national boundaries, as well as in all historical periods, is encouraged. The journal wishes to promote intellectual debate: the views expressed are those of individual authors and not of the Editorial Collective or Advisory Board. For more information please visit our website at http://www.tandf.co.uk/journals/titles/14636204.asp.

Editorial correspondence may be sent to Prof. Georgina Dopico Black, email: jscs@nyu.edu

Books for review or for listing in ‘Books received’ may be sent to Anabel Martín, Department of Spanish and Portuguese, 6072 Dartmouth Hall, Dartmouth College, Hanover, NH 03755, USA (e-mail: annabel.martin@dartmouth.edu).

Notes for Contributors

Submission of manuscripts
The Editors welcome the submission of articles and proposals for monographic issues, position papers, interviews, and review articles. Articles should normally be between 7000–8500 words; position papers and interviews, 2000–4000 words; and reviews of individual books, 700–1000 words. Material may be published in English or Spanish, with quotations in the original language (in the case of Basque, Catalan, and Galician, an English or Spanish translation should also be given). All articles are peer-reviewed.

Submissions should be sent via e-mail to jscs@nyu.edu as Microsoft Word attachments with contact information included in the body of the message. Notes should be kept to a minimum and placed at the end of the text before the list of works cited.

Images. We encourage contributing authors publishing in JSCS to include visual materials with their articles. If copyrights are standing however, a written authorization from the copyright holder must be obtained prior to submission of the article (a simple note addressed to the Journal of Spanish Cultural Studies authorizing publication of photographic reproduction of the artist(s)’ work will suffice). The author of the article is responsible to submit to JSCS:

- The copyright holder’s written authorization for publication
- A digitalized version of the image, saved in a high resolution Tif file (min. 300dpi)
- A caption, supplied in a separate word file, stating name of the artist, title of the work, and year if possible and/or appropriate
- Instructions on the placement of the image in the text

Proofs will be sent to authors if there is time to do so. They should be corrected and returned within three days. Major alterations to the text cannot be accepted.

Free article access. As corresponding author, you will receive free access to your article on Taylor & Francis Online. You will be given access to the My authored works section of Taylor & Francis Online, which shows you all your published articles. You can easily view, read, and download your published articles from there. In addition, if someone has cited your article, you will be able to see this information. We are committed to promoting and increasing the visibility of your article and have provided this guidance <http://journalauthors.tandf.co.uk/beyondpublication/promotearticle.asp> on how you can help.

Reprints and journal copies. Article reprints can be ordered through Rightslink® when you receive your proofs. If you have any queries about reprints, please contact the Taylor & Francis Author Services team at reprints@tandf.co.uk. To order a copy of the issue containing your article, please contact our Customer Services team at subscriptions@tandf.co.uk.

Copyright. It is condition of publication that authors assign copyright or license the publication rights in their articles, including abstracts, to Taylor & Francis. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and of course the Journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors retain many rights under the Taylor & Francis right policies, which can be found at http://journalauthors.tandf.co.uk/preparation/copyright.asp. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.
