NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS TO THE AUSTRALIAN JOURNAL OF LEARNING DIFFICULTIES

Papers accepted become the copyright of the Journal, unless otherwise specifically agreed.

Manuscripts, ideally between 2000 and 8000 words (research notes up to 2000 words), should be submitted via Manuscript Central. The website is up to date with this information. Where this is not possible, three copies of the article, with any illustrations, should be submitted to: The Editors, Macquarie University Special Education Centre, Macquarie University, Sydney, NSW 2109, Australia. Articles should be double spaced, with ample margins adhering to the style guide of the American Psychological Association (APA) (5th edition). A cover sheet should bear the title of the contribution, name(s) of the author(s) and the address where the work was carried out. A second sheet should again give the title article (without the name(s) of the author(s), to facilitate ‘blind’ refereeing), together with an abstract of 100-150 words. The full postal address, telephone and fax numbers, and email address of the author who will check proofs and receive correspondence, should also be included. All pages should be numbered. Footnotes to the text should be avoided.

Contributors should preferably email their articles to AJLD@speced.sed.mq.edu.au. File (‘soft’) copies of articles, produced in recent (post-2000) versions of Microsoft Word for Mac or PC, should be attached as an enclosure to the emailed standard submission letter.

Statistics. Given the nature of this journal, it is expected that indications of effect size will be included by authors, where possible, so as to allow readers to form a judgement as to the importance of any findings reported.

Tables and illustrations. Tables and figures must be appended as separate sheets and not included as part of the text. Tables and figures should be numbered separately. The approximate position of tables and figures should be indicated in the manuscript. Captions should include keys to symbols. Please supply artwork in the finished form, suitable for reproduction. Figures will not be redrawn by the publisher.

References should be indicated in the typescript by giving the author’s name, with the year of publication in parentheses, as detailed in the APA style guide. If several papers by the same author(s) and from the same year are cited, a, b, c, etc. should be put after the year of publication. The references should be listed in full at the end of the paper in standard APA format. For example:

Proofs will be emailed to authors if there is sufficient time to do so. They should be corrected and returned within three days. Major alterations to the text cannot be accepted.

Copyright. It is a condition of publication that authors assign copyright or license publication rights in their articles, including abstracts, to Learning Difficulties Australia. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and of course the Journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors retain many rights under the Taylor & Francis rights policies, which can be found at www.informaworld.com/authors_journals.copyright_position. Authors are required to secure permission if wanting to reproduce any figure, table, or extract from the text of another source. This applies to direct reproduction as well as “derivative reproduction” (where a new figure or table is created which derives substantially from a copyrighted source).
