Submit a paper to International Journal of Inclusive Education

Preparing and submitting your manuscript

The instructions below are specifically directed at authors that wish to submit a manuscript to International Journal of Inclusive Education.

For information about writing an article, preparing your manuscript and general guidance for authors, please visit the Author Services section of our website (http://journalauthors.tandf.co.uk). Before preparing your submission, please visit the International Journal of Inclusive Education homepage at www.tandf.co.uk/journals/ijinclusiveEd for full instructions for authors, including a complete style guide.

Papers for consideration should be submitted via the Journal’s online submission site at http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/tied. New authors will be requested to create an account before submitting their manuscript. Online user guides and access to a helpdesk are available on this website.

Manuscripts, ideally between 4000–7000 words, must also include an abstract of no more than 200 words in length. Authors are also requested to nominate up to five relevant keywords pertaining to their work in order to assist the journal’s editors in selecting appropriate reviewers for their paper.

Articles submitted to International Journal of Inclusive Education should not be under consideration by any other journal, or have been published elsewhere, and the letter accompanying the submission of any manuscript should contain a clear statement to this effect.

If online submission is not possible, please send an electronic version by email attachment to the Editorial Office.

Editorial Office
Roger Sise, Director, Institute for Diversity, Educational Access & Success, Victoria University, Melbourne, Australia; email:roger.sise@vuu.edu.au

Please make sure that your contact details are included on any email correspondence to the Editorial Office.

Submitted manuscripts are subject to peer review at the discretion of the Editorial Office. In order to maintain anonymity during any refereeing process, authors are requested to refrain from, or keep to a minimum, self-referencing.

There are no page charges in International Journal of Inclusive Education.

Copyright
It is a condition of publication that authors assign copyright or license the publication rights in their articles, including abstracts, to Taylor & Francis. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and of course the Journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors retain many other rights under the Taylor & Francis rights policy, which can be purchased through Rightslink® when proofs are received or alternatively on our journals website. If you have any queries, please contact our reprints department at reprints@tandf.co.uk.

Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.

Reprints
Corresponding authors will receive free online access to their article through our website (www.tandf.co.uk/journals/inclusiveEd). Reprints of articles published in International Journal of Inclusive Education can be purchased through Rightslink® when proofs are received or alternatively on our journals website. If you have any queries, please contact our reprints department at reprints@tandf.co.uk.
